

STUDYING HOSPITALITY AT THE ARCH

The Level 1 and Level 2 qualifications in Hospitality (QCF) offer a learning experience through applied learning. Students will acquire and apply knowledge, skills and understanding through purposeful practical and theoretical tasks.

The qualifications provide learners with an introduction to the knowledge and skills required to be an effective chef, waiter, or to undertake other back of house or front of house roles.

You should be at least 14 years old. You can usually complete the Certificate in a year.

When studying with us, you will be fully supported by a personal tutor. Your tutor will help with any issues that arise. At The Arch, we firmly believe that every learner should achieve their full potential and will work hard to make sure that this happens. You will be offered enhancement qualifications, including Barista training, Food Hygiene certificates and the Duke of Edinburgh's Award.

"I never thought I could get a good job in Hospitality"

Robbie Cox

"I started as a Level 1 learner and am now doing an apprenticeship. I hope to work in a hotel."

Mark McNamara

WORK EXPERIENCE

All our learners also complete periods of work experience at placements that we arrange with selected employers, including leading cafes, restaurants and hotels. During this time, you will be fully supported by our team of mentors and tutors.

FACILITIES

Our learners have access to classrooms equipped with state of the art facilities, including simulated catering facilities and our own fully working cafe.
